
Karen E. Meloy

Senior Acquisition Logistician
ERP Program Manager
Naval Supply Systems Command

Ms Meloy is the command's Senior Acquisition Logistician and Naval Supply Systems Command (NAVSUP) ERP Program Manager. She is responsible for coordinating the design, development and deployment of Navy ERP Single Supply Solution throughout the Supply Domain. The Navy ERP effort is to create the Navy's cradle-to-grave solution for transaction based business processes and establish the baseline for future applicability of efficient commercial business practices. This extensive Navy Enterprise solution will retire the majority of the Command's legacy applications. Prior to this assignment she served as the Navy Deputy Commander of the Department of Navy (DON) eBusiness Operations Office, Mechanicsburg, PA. She was selected to the Senior Executive Service in 2001. Prior to her assignment at the DON eBusiness Operation Office she was Deputy Assistant Commander, Supply Chain Management and Fleet Support at the Naval Supply Systems Command Headquarters (NAVSUPHQ).

Ms. Meloy graduated from Wilkes College in 1979 with a bachelor's degree in earth and environmental science. Ms Meloy has pursued various graduate level courses in logistics and management. Ms Meloy is a member of the Defense Leadership and Management Program (DLAMP) since 1999.

She joined NAVSUPHQ in 1986. Her assignments at NAVSUPHQ included the Deputy Assistant Commander of Supply Chain Management and Fleet Support, Director of Weapons Systems Support Division and Director of Integrated Logistics Support Division. She was the Branch Head of the Provisioning, Allowance Policy Branch and was the Naval Sea Systems Command (NAVSEA)/Naval Space and Warfare Systems Command (SPAWAR) systems liaison in the Integrated Logistics Support Group. She has managed the military and civilian Integrated Logistic Support Intern program for the command.

Prior to joining NAVSUPHQ she was the Branch Head of the Nuclear Reactors Department, Quality Assurance Branch and a Supply Systems Analyst in the TRIDENT Submarine Program, Outfitting and Fitting Out Department at the Naval Inventory Control Point (formerly Ships Parts Control Center) Mechanicsburg, PA.

Ms Meloy was a Fed 100 winner in 2004, and received the Superior Civilian Service Award in 2001. She is a certified as an Acquisition Community Professional since 1996, and Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act (DAWIA) Level III certified in acquisition logistics. In 1999, she was selected as NAVSUPHQ's Federal Employee Association's Executive of the Year. Her professional memberships include the Society of Logistics Engineers and APICS.
